Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status was denied by the Director, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant had not demonstrated that she had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988.

On appeal, the applicant's counsel states that the witness affidavits attesting to the applicant's residence in the United States were not accorded appropriate weight. The applicant's counsel also states that he filed a brief in support of the appeal; however, a review of the record reveals that no brief was filed. Counsel for the applicant was contacted on May 20, 2008, requesting that a copy of the brief or statement be filed with the appeal within five business days. To date, no brief or statement has been filed.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence, nor has she addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
