Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004 (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements), was denied by the District Director, Detroit. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director determined the applicant had not demonstrated that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through the date that he attempted to file a Form I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident, with the Immigration and Naturalization Service (now Citizenship and Immigration Services or CIS) in the original legalization application period of May 5, 1987 to May 4, 1988. The director concluded that the applicant was not eligible to adjust to temporary resident status under section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act).

On appeal, _____ submitted on behalf of the applicant a Form I-694, Notice of Appeal of Decision Under Section 210 or 245A of the Act.

An applicant for temporary resident status may appeal an adverse decision on Form I-694. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(o). The applicant may be represented by an attorney or representative in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 292. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(iii)(B). The person acting in a representative capacity must be "authorized and qualified to represent," and a notice of appearance must be signed by the applicant to authorize representation in order for the appearance to be recognized by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS). 8 C.F.R. § 292.4.

The regulations provide that every application, petition, appeal, motion, request, or other document submitted on the form prescribed by the Department of Homeland Security regulations shall be executed and filed in accordance with the instructions on the form; and the instructions are incorporated into the particular section of the regulations requiring its submission. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(1). Form I-694 includes the following instruction:

Any Form I-694 that is not signed or accompanied by the correct fee will be rejected with a notice that the Form I-694 is deficient. [An applicant] may correct the deficiency and resubmit the Form I-694.¹

In this case the Form I-694 is not signed by the applicant, but rather by _____, who identifies himself as the applicant's friend. There is no Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance of Attorney or Representative, in the file, however, to indicate that _____ is an attorney or representative who is authorized to represent the applicant. On February 20, 2008, the AAO sent a letter to Mr. _____ requesting that he provide a copy of his Form G-28. _____ was afforded 15 days to respond to this request. As of the date of this decision, _____ has not provided the AAO with his Form G-28. Since the appeal has not been signed and filed by the applicant or by any authorized representative, the appeal is deficient and has not been properly filed. The appeal, therefore, must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
