

DISCUSSION: The termination of the applicant's temporary resident status by the Director, Los Angeles Field Office, is before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to respond to the Notice of Intent to Terminate. Specifically, the director found that the applicant's Form I-698 Application to Adjust Status from Temporary to Permanent Resident Status was not filed within 43 months after the approval of his application for temporary resident status.

On appeal, the applicant stated that he had filed for permanent residence and the second stage of legalization; he had not received any correspondence from the Immigration and Naturalization Service, currently Citizenship and Immigration Services; he had lost his file number and temporary residence card; and he was not informed that he had failed to apply within the required period. The applicant indicated that he would submit a brief within 30 days. Four months have passed since the applicant submitted his appeal, and he has failed to submit a brief or additional documentation. Therefore, the record will be considered complete. The applicant failed to submit any evidence that he timely filed to adjust to permanent resident status.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. Specifically, he has failed to submit any evidence indicating he timely filed to adjust to permanent resident status. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
