John F. Grissom, Acting Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreements reached in Catholic Social Services, Inc., et al., v. Ridge, et al., CIV. NO. S-86-1343-LKK (E.D. Cal) January 23, 2004, and Felicity Mary Newman, et al., v. United States Immigration and Citizenship Services, et al., CIV. NO. 87-4757-WDK (C.D. Cal) February 17, 2004, (CSS/Newman Settlement Agreements) was denied by the Director, New York and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because she found the evidence submitted with the application was insufficient to establish eligibility for Temporary Resident Status pursuant to the terms of the CSS/Newman settlement agreements. Specifically, the director noted that the record contains a Form G-325A dated February 20, 2002 and signed by the applicant. In this document, the applicant indicated that he resided in Bangladesh from December 1957 until August 1985. The director further noted that the applicant submitted documents from [REDACTED] who has been convicted of falsifying employment documents. Given the inconsistencies noted and the paucity of evidence in the record, the director concluded that the applicant failed to establish eligibility for the benefit sought and denied the application on March 7, 2007.

On appeal, the applicant indicated that he only traveled to Bangladesh in 1985 and that he has submitted sufficient evidence of continuous residency for the duration of the requisite period. He submits no additional evidence on appeal, which would substantiate his explanation of the inconsistency noted or which would establish his entry prior to January 1, 1982 and his continuous residency in the United States for the duration of the requisite period.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he sufficiently addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
