IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. If your appeal was dismissed or rejected, all documents have been returned to the National Benefits Center. You no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case. If your appeal was sustained or remanded for further action, you will be contacted.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Los Angeles, terminated approval of the application for temporary resident status that is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated approval of the application because the applicant did not establish that he continuously resided in the United States for the duration of the requisite period.

The applicant submitted his Form I-694 appeal in blank. The appeal does not, therefore, address the director's analysis of the evidence or state any reason for the appeal. No evidence was submitted with the appeal. The applicant failed, therefore, to address the director's analysis of the evidence.

On that appeal form, which the applicant submitted on June 24, 2008, the applicant checked a box indicating that he would submit a brief within 30 days. No brief has since been received, nor has any additional evidence.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for termination of approval of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not addressed the grounds stated for termination, nor has he presented additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
