Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, Missouri Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director concluded the applicant had not established that she had applied for class membership in any of the requisite legalization class-action lawsuits prior to October 1, 2000 and, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant asserted that she is claiming class membership as a derivative alien based on her spouse's purportedly having filed a written claim in the LULAC legalization class-action lawsuit.

An applicant for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in any of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993). In the alternative, an applicant may demonstrate that his or her spouse or parent filed a written claim for class membership before October 1, 2000. However, the applicant must establish that the family relationship existed at the time the spouse or parent initially attempted to apply for temporary residence (legalization) in the period of May 5, 1987 to May 4, 1988. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

In response to the Notice of Intent to Deny, the applicant submitted a letter indicating she was attaching a copy of her spouse's correspondence regarding his class membership in the LULAC v. INS lawsuit. However, a review of the record of proceedings fails to disclose such correspondence. Rather, the applicant submitted an explanatory descriptive sheet entitled "Examples of a Written Documentation for Claim for Class Membership." Neither these submissions nor any of the documentation submitted along with this LIFE application are indicative of having filed a timely application for class membership. Nor is there any evidence in Bureau records that the applicant's spouse has ever filed a written application for class membership. Therefore, the applicant cannot claim class membership as a derivative alien pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

Given her failure to document that she or her spouse filed a written claim for class membership, the applicant is ineligible for permanent residence under section 1104 of the LIFE Act.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
