Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, Missouri Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director concluded the applicant had not established that he had applied for class membership in any of the requisite legalization class-action lawsuits prior to October 1, 2000 and, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, counsel states that the applicant is gathering information to prove his participation as a member of one of the class-action lawsuits. Counsel also claims that he is sending a brief and/or evidence to the AAO within 30 days. Neither counsel or the applicant has presented any additional material to supplement the appeal.

An applicant for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in any of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993).

The applicant failed to submit any documentation addressing this requirement when the application was filed. On rebuttal, the applicant provided a statement in which he claimed that he applied for class membership in the Catholic Social Services class action case. However, the applicant provided no evidence to support this claim. Moreover, a review of Bureau records, including all evidence previously provided by the applicant, fails to establish this claim. Finally, the CSS lawsuit was not filed until after 1986. Given his failure to document that he filed a written claim for class membership, the applicant is ineligible for permanent residence under section 1104 of the LIFE Act.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
