This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. The file has been returned to the National Benefits Center. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, Missouri Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director concluded the applicant had not established that he had applied for class membership in any of the requisite legalization class-action lawsuits prior to October 1, 2000 and, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant claims to have sent a request for class membership to the Washington, D.C. office of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (now Citizenship and Immigration Services, or CIS.)

An applicant for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in any of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993). See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

The regulations provide an illustrative list of documents that an applicant may submit to establish that he or she filed a written claim for class membership before October 1, 2000. The regulations also permit the submission of "[a]ny other relevant document(s)." See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.14.

Along with his LIFE application, the applicant included a Form I-687 Application for Status as Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, dated October 19, 1987. He also provided a Legalization Questionnaire dated January 16, 2000, and an undated affidavit which described his purported attempts to apply for legalization during the actual filing period of May 5, 1987 to May 4, 1988.

The Legalization Questionnaire was completed and signed in ink. Thus, this is an original document, rather than a photocopy of what the applicant is claiming he had submitted in the past. If the applicant had actually submitted the document prior to October 1, 2000, it would be in the possession of CIS, and the applicant would only have a photocopy to furnish now in this LIFE proceeding. The Form I-687 and the affidavit appear to be photocopies. However, an examination of CIS records fails to disclose any evidence of the applicant having previously filed the originals. In fact, no CIS A-file was ever created in the name of the applicant until he filed this LIFE application on May 30, 2002.

It must be noted that the applicant is one of many aliens whose LIFE applications were prepared by Mario E. Carretero, an immigration consultant in Chicago. Although he has also signed the appeals, Mr. Carretero is not an accredited representative or otherwise authorized to represent aliens in proceedings before CIS.

Furthermore, all of the cases reviewed by this office thus far are the same in that none of the aliens had a pre-existing file with CIS prior to the filing of their LIFE applications. None of the applicants has provided any evidence, such as postal receipts, of having mailed any documents to the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service office in Washington, D.C., as they all claim. Also, a LIFE applicant must demonstrate that he or she resided in the United States from January 1, 1982 to May 4, 1988, pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 245a.11(b). None of these applicants has provided any contemporaneous documents of residence for that time-frame that are listed in 8 C.F.R. 245a.2(d)(3), such as pay stubs, W-2 forms, bills, receipts, school and medical records, licenses, registrations, and birth certificates of children born in the United States. Although this applicant has provided a copy of an employment letter dated May 19, 1987, attesting to his employment from 1981 to 1987, the other affidavits he and the other applicants have provided attesting to their residence for the 1982-88 period are all in the same stylized format with the same typeface, and they are all identically-worded "fill in the blank" statements. These factors and commonalities raise additional questions as to the eligibility of the applicants for adjustment of status under the LIFE Act.

Given his failure to establish having filed a timely written claim for class membership, the applicant is ineligible for permanent residence under section 1104 of the LIFE Act.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
