DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Phoenix, Arizona, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director noted that the applicant was requested to provide a copy of the police investigative report for charges that she incurred in Phoenix, Arizona for the possession for sale/growing of marijuana, misconduct involving weapons and the possession of drug paraphernalia. The director further noted that although the applicant had provided other material relating to these charges including a letter of clearance from the police and a certified copy of the related court disposition, she did not provide all of the documents requested. The director denied that application because the applicant did not provide a copy of the requested police investigative report or a letter of non-availability from the police.

On appeal, the applicant merely states, "notice of intent to deny."

An applicant for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in any of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993)(CSS), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993)(LULAC), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993)(Zambrano). See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

The regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv) provide that any appeal that fails to state the reason for the appeal or is patently frivolous will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
