DISCUSSION: The application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status was denied by the District Director, Chicago and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to demonstrate a minimal understanding of ordinary English and a knowledge and understanding of the history and government of the United States.

On appeal, the applicant does not contest the director's basis for denial, and does not specify any reasons for her appeal.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence in support of the claim. Nor has the applicant addressed the grounds stated for the denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
