Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Los Angeles, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The district director concluded the applicant had failed to establish that she had resided in continuous unlawful status in the United States from prior to January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that the evidence she submitted in support of her application was not taken into account by the district director in rendering his decision.

The applicant appears to be represented; however, the record contains no Service Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative, as required by 8 C.F.R. § 292.4(a). Although all representations will be considered, the notice of decision will be furnished only to the applicant.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30 day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30 day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b) (1).

If an applicant's last known address of record was outside the United States, and the Notice of Decision was mailed to that foreign address, the appeal must be received by the Service within 60 calendar days after service of the Notice of Decision. An appeal received after the 60 day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 60-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b) (2).

The record reflects that the director sent the decision of June 19, 2003 to the applicant and at her most current address of record. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the appeal 48 days later on August 6, 2003. The appeal was, therefore, untimely filed.

The burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought remains entirely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The applicant has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
