Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, Missouri Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director concluded the applicant had not established that she had applied for class membership in any of the requisite legalization class-action lawsuits prior to October 1, 2000 and, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant states that she previously submitted a claim to class membership in one of the requisite legalization class-action lawsuits.

An applicant for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in any of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993) (CSS), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993) (LULAC), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993) (Zambrano). See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

The regulations provide an illustrative list of documents that an applicant may submit to establish that he or she filed a written claim for class membership before October 1, 2000. Those regulations also permit the submission of "[a]ny other relevant document(s)." See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.14.

The applicant seemingly believes that the filing of her LIFE Act application on May 19, 2002, constitutes a written claim for class membership. Pursuant to the above regulation, an alien would have to demonstrate that he or she had filed a written claim for class membership prior to October 1, 2000 in order to qualify for late legalization under the LIFE Act. Here, in the current proceeding, the applicant has not applied for class membership in a lawsuit but rather has applied directly to CIS for permanent residence under the LIFE Act. The basic statutory requirement of having filed for class membership by October 1, 2000 must still be met in all LIFE cases. The applicant's filing of her LIFE Act application cannot be equated with having filed a written claim to class membership before October 1, 2000.

Given her failure to document that she filed a timely written claim for class membership, the applicant is ineligible for permanent residence under section 1104 of the LIFE Act.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
