INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. The file has been returned to the National Benefits Center. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, Missouri Service Center. It is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director determined that the applicant had not established he had applied for class membership in any of the requisite legalization class-action lawsuits prior to October 1, 2000.

On appeal, the applicant states that his father's application for "CSS Late Amnesty" was improperly rejected because his father had traveled to Mexico. The applicant believes that this was not right and that he and his father should be given another opportunity to become legal residents.

An applicant for permanent resident status under section 1104 of the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in one of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993) ("CSS"), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993) ("LULAC"), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993) ("Zambrano"). See section 1104(b) of the LIFE Act and 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

Section 1104(c)(2)(B)(i) of the LIFE Act provides that each applicant for permanent resident status must establish that he or she entered and commenced residing in the United States prior to January 1, 1982. On his Form I-687 Application for Status as a Temporary Resident, the applicant states that he resided abroad until January 1988 when he entered the United States from Mexico to reside in Shafter, California. Given the applicant's inability to meet the statutory requirement of residence in the United States since before January 1, 1982, the applicant is ineligible for permanent residence under section 1104 of the LIFE Act.

Accordingly, the issue of whether the applicant applied for class membership in the one of the three lawsuits listed above is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
