If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, Missouri Service Center. It is now on appeal before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The appeal will be dismissed.

The director concluded that the applicant had not established she had applied for class membership in any of the requisite legalization class-action lawsuits prior to October 1, 2000 and, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal counsel asserts that the director's "decision is not based on sufficient or substantial evidence." Counsel indicated on the appeal form, filed July 2, 2003, that a brief and/or evidence would be submitted within 30 days – i.e., by August 1, 2003. Up to the date of this decision, however, no such brief or evidence has been submitted.

An applicant for permanent resident status under section 1104 of the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in one of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993) ("CSS"), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993) ("LULAC"), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993) ("Zambrano"). See section 1104(b) of the LIFE Act and 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

The regulations provide an illustrative list of documents that an applicant may submit to establish that he or she filed a written claim for class membership before October 1, 2000. Those regulations also permit the submission of "[a]ny other relevant document(s)." See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.14.

The applicant has not asserted anywhere in the record, nor has she submitted any documentary evidence, that she filed a claim for class membership in one of the requisite legalization lawsuits before October 1, 2000. Nor is there any record at Citizenship and Immigration Services (successor to the Immigration and Naturalization Service) that the applicant filed a claim for class membership in one of the lawsuits. In fact there is no record of any filing by the applicant until the instant LIFE application was filed on May 31, 2002. That was more than a year and a half after the statutory deadline of October 1, 2000, to file a claim for class membership in one of the other legalization lawsuits.

Thus, the applicant has failed to establish that she filed a written claim for class membership in one of the legalization class-action lawsuits, CSS, LULAC, or Zambrano, before October 1, 2000, as required under section 1104(b) of the LIFE Act.

Accordingly, the applicant is ineligible for permanent resident status under section 1104 of the LIFE Act.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
