IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Adjustment from Temporary to Permanent Resident Status under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the adjustment application because the applicant's temporary resident status had been terminated, and the applicant was therefore not eligible for adjustment to permanent resident status. The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant had failed to provide criminal dispositions.

On appeal, the applicant indicates that he regrets having engaged in certain activities in the past, and requests that he be given another chance.

An alien whose temporary resident status has been terminated under 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(u) is ineligible for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.3(c)(5).

The applicant had thirty (30) days in which to appeal the director's decision terminating his temporary resident status. However, he failed to do so.

The applicant is not a temporary resident. Therefore, he is ineligible for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status. There is no waiver, even for humanitarian reasons, of this ineligibility.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status.
