Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Phoenix, Arizona, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director found that the applicant had entered the United States for the first time in approximately January 1985 and that she had come to live in the United States on a regular basis in approximately May 1987. The director concluded the applicant had not established that she had continuously and unlawfully resided in the United States during the entire qualifying period from January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988 and, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant states:

I have applied "LIFE LEGALIZATION" with my husband [REDACTED] and I was in Mexico when I went out to stay and wait for him to be married, then he came back to USA to continue working for later take me and children to live in USA, now all our children are in the school and they are very good students and they have never resided in Mexico, we consider that we need to be granted for the future of our family in USA and also it will be very hard for me to be separated from my family. I apply to your humanitarian decision for my case.

It is noted that according to Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) administrative and electronic records, the LIFE application submitted by the applicant's spouse has already been denied.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
