IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Adjustment from Temporary to Permanent Resident Status under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1255a

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if your case was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant's temporary resident status had been terminated, and that made him ineligible for adjustment from temporary to permanent resident status.

On appeal, the applicant indicates his desire to present an oral argument in order to resolve the matter, but does not contest the basis for the denial.

With regard to the applicant's request for oral argument, such a request must set forth specific facts explaining why such argument is necessary to supplement the appeal. 8 C.F.R. 103.3(b). Oral argument will be denied in any case where the appeal is found to be frivolous, where oral argument will serve no useful purpose or where written material or representations will appropriately serve the interests of the applicant. In this case, the appeal is frivolous, and oral argument would serve no useful purpose. Accordingly, the request for oral argument is denied.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not addressed the basis for the denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
