IN RE: Applicant: [Redacted]

PETITION: Application for Status as a Permanent Resident pursuant to Section 1104 of the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act of 2000, Pub. L. 106-553, 114 Stat. 2762 (2000), amended by LIFE Act Amendments, Pub. L. 106-554, 114 Stat. 2763 (2000).

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, National Benefits Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director concluded the applicant had not established that he had applied for class membership in any of the requisite legalization class-action lawsuits prior to October 1, 2000 and, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant claims to have sent a request for class membership to the Washington, D.C. office of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service or INS (now Citizenship and Immigration Services, or CIS).

Although a Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative (Form G-28) has been submitted, the individual is not authorized under 8 C.F.R. § 292.1 or § 292.2 to represent the applicant. Therefore, this decision will be furnished to the applicant only.

An applicant for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act must establish that before October 1, 2000, he or she filed a written claim with the Attorney General for class membership in any of the following legalization class-action lawsuits: Catholic Social Services, Inc. v. Meese, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), League of United Latin American Citizens v. INS, vacated sub nom. Reno v. Catholic Social Services, Inc., 509 U.S. 43 (1993), or Zambrano v. INS, vacated sub nom. Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Zambrano, 509 U.S. 918 (1993). See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.10.

The regulations provide an illustrative list of documents that an applicant may submit to establish that he or she filed a written claim for class membership before October 1, 2000. The regulations also permit the submission of "[a]ny other relevant document(s)." See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.14.

Along with his LIFE application, the applicant provided the following:

- a photocopy of a Form I-687, Application for Status as Temporary Resident under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), dated February 10, 1988;
- a Legalization Questionnaire dated November 19, 1999; and
- an undated affidavit that described his purported attempts to apply for legalization during the actual filing period of May 5, 1987 to May 4, 1988.

The photocopied Form I-687 application submitted by the applicant was purportedly completed February 10, 1988. This date would have been well within the May 5, 1987 to May 4, 1988 application period for applying for temporary residence (legalization) under the Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA). While this photocopied application might serve as evidence of being "front-desked" or otherwise discouraged or prevented from applying for legalization under section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), it does not constitute an application for class membership under any of the aforementioned class-action lawsuits.

Moreover, had the applicant actually filed a Legalization Front-Desking Questionnaire with CIS on December 18, 1999, as claimed, a file would normally have been created at that point. However, there is no indication in CIS administrative or computer records of the applicant ever having filed this document. In fact, no CIS file was ever created in the name of the applicant until he filed this LIFE application on March 11, 2002. It should also be noted that the applicant in this case has not provided any type of individual receipt or letter that was issued to him by INS prior to October 1, 2000.

The applicant has failed to provide documentation establishing his having filed a timely written claim for class membership. Accordingly, the applicant is ineligible for permanent residence under section 1104 of the LIFE Act.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
