Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Houston, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The district director denied the application because the applicant had not demonstrated that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988.

On appeal, the applicant reiterates his claim that resided in the United States since 1981. The applicant provides copies of previously submitted documentation.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30 day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30 day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b) (1)

If an applicant's last known address of record was outside the United States, and the Notice of Decision was mailed to that foreign address, the appeal must be received by the Service within 60 calendar days after service of the Notice of Decision. An appeal received after the 60 day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 60-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b) (2).

The record reflects that the director sent the decision of October 31, 2003, to the applicant at his address of record. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the appeal at an office capable of providing a fee receipt 74 days later on January 13, 2004. While the applicant initially attempted to file his appeal in a timely manner, this attempted filing was made to an improper CIS office incapable of providing a fee receipt for the appeal and was not received until December 5, 2003, 35 days after the Notice of Decision had been issued. It is noted that directions contained within the decision dated October 31, 2003, specifically informed the applicant that the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal, must be submitted to the CIS office that originally rendered the decision. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed.

The burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought remains entirely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The applicant has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
