Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, El Paso, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director denied the application because the applicant had failed to establish that she satisfied the "basic citizenship skills" required under section 1104(c)(2)(E) of the LIFE Act.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1)

The record reflects that the director sent his decision of May 6, 2004 to the applicant at her address of record. The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal is very clear in indicating that the appeal is not to be sent directly to the AAO. The applicant, nevertheless, sent her appeal to the AAO. The appeal is not considered properly received until it is received by the district office which rendered the unfavorable decision. The El Paso district office received the appeal on July 16, 2004, 71 days after the date of the adverse decision. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
