2 Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Seattle, Washington, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The district director concluded the applicant had not established his identity, had not established that he resided in the United States in a continuous unlawful status from before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988, as required by section 1104(c)(2)(B) of the LIFE Act, or that he was continuously physically present in the United States from November 6, 1986 through May 4, 1988, as required by section 1104(c)(2)(C) of the LIFE Act. The director noted that the applicant had not submitted substantive evidence in response to the Notice of Intent to Deny the Application for Permanent Residence. The director therefore denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant admits that he lied about the purpose of his trip to Canada and that he “gave wrong information there.” However, the applicant submitted no additional evidence to resolve the issue of his identity or to address the other grounds for denial of his application.

An appeal that fails to state the reason for appeal or is patently frivolous will be summarily dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv). The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
