Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Chicago. The decision is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director determined the applicant failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that he meets the requirements to adjust status under the LIFE Act.

An adverse decision on an application for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act may be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office. Any appeal filed from within the United States must be received by United States Citizenship and Immigration Services within thirty (30) calendar days after service of the notice of denial (NOD). An appeal received after the thirty-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30 day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the NOD is mailed. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1).

The record reflects that the director sent his decision of March 11, 2004 to the applicant at his address of record.

The Form I-290B appeal was submitted on April 27, 2005, more than one year after the director's decision. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed, and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
