Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The termination of temporary resident status by the Director, California Service Center, is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant had been convicted of four misdemeanors.

An adverse decision on an application for temporary resident status may be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office. Any appeal with the required fee shall be filed with the Service Center within thirty (30) days after service of the notice of denial or termination. An appeal received after the thirty-day period has tolled will not be accepted. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.2(p). Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

In this case, the director issued his notice of termination on March 5, 1996. The applicant filed his Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, on May 6, 1996, over two months after the director's decision. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
