IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Status as a Permanent Resident pursuant to Section 1104 of the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act of 2000, Pub. L. 106-553, 114 Stat.
2762 (2000), amended by LIFE Act Amendments, Pub. L. 106-554, 114 Stat.
2763 (2000)

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Houston, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The district director denied the application because the applicant had not demonstrated that he had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988.

On appeal, the applicant states that his testimony and the supporting documentation in the record are sufficient to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that he was in the United States during the requisite period.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(iii) states, in pertinent part:

(B) Meaning of affected party. For purposes of this section and §§ 103.4 and 103.5 of this part, affected party (in addition to the Service) means the person or entity with legal standing in a proceeding. It does not include the beneficiary of a visa petition.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v) states:

Improperly filed appeal – (A) Appeal filed by person or entity not entitled to file it – (1) Rejection without refund of filing fee. An appeal filed by a person or entity not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee the Service has accepted will not be refunded.

Only an affected party, a person or entity with legal standing, may file an appeal of an unfavorable decision. The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal to the Administrative Appeals Unit, is signed by [REDACTED] of the Law Offices of [REDACTED], as the applicant's attorney. The Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative, in the record is not signed by an attorney or other authorized representative. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(3) specifies that an applicant may be represented "by an attorney in the United States, as defined in § 1.1(f) of this chapter, by an attorney outside the United States as defined in § 292.1(a)(6) of this chapter, or by an accredited representative as defined in § 292.1(a)(4) of this chapter." On December 11, 2006, the AAO requested a properly executed G-28 from the Law Offices of [REDACTED]. However, as of the date of this decision, no further documentation has been received by the AAO.

Accordingly, the AAO cannot recognize the Law Offices of [REDACTED] as an authorized representative in this proceeding. The appeal has not been filed by the applicant or by any entity with legal standing in the proceeding. Therefore the appeal has not been properly filed and must be rejected.

The record reflects that the applicant filed another I-687, Application for Status as a Temporary Resident Under Section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, on October 25, 2006, which has not been finally adjudicated. This application is not at issue in this decision.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
