INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Houston, Texas and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The district director concluded that the applicant had been convicted of at least three misdemeanors in the United States, and accordingly, denied the application.

On appeal dated January 31, 2005, counsel did not address the basis for the denial of the application or provide any evidence to overcome the director's findings. Counsel merely asserted that the director's decision is arbitrary and that a brief would be submitted within 30 days. However, no brief was submitted by counsel. On March 3, 2005, the AAO received correspondence from counsel requesting an additional 20 days in which to submit a brief with supporting documentation. More than two years later, however, no brief has been presented by counsel.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. Counsel has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
