Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Los Angeles, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director denied the application because she found the applicant failed to provide documentation establishing his residence and physical presence from before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988.

An adverse decision on an application for permanent resident status under the LIFE Act may be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office. Any appeal filed from within the United States must be received by United States Citizenship and Immigration Services within thirty (30) calendar days after service of the notice of denial (NOD). An appeal received after the thirty-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30 day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the NOD is mailed. See 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1).

The record reflects that the director sent her decision of January 18, 2007 to the applicant at his address of record.

The Form I-290B appeal was submitted on February 23, 2007, 36 days after the director's decision. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed, and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
