DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, New York, New York, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The district director denied the application because the applicant failed to demonstrate knowledge of English and of the government and history of the United States.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the applicant has tried to study English as a second language but that her age and sickness has hampered her efforts. Counsel further asserts that the applicant should be considered on humanitarian grounds.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1)

The record reflects that the director sent her decision of February 14, 2006, to the applicant and counsel at their addresses of record. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the appeal 156 days later on July 20, 2006. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
