DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, New York, New York, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The district director denied the application because the applicant failed to demonstrate knowledge of English and of the government and history of the United States.

On appeal, applicant asserts that she had sufficient proficiency in both English and government and history of the United States to pass the basic citizenship skills requirement.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1)

The record reflects that the director sent her decision of April 7, 2005, to the applicant at the applicant's address of record. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the appeal 40 days later on May 17, 2005. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
