Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the Director, Dallas, Texas, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The director concluded that the applicant did not demonstrate that he possessed a minimal understanding of ordinary English or knowledge and understanding of the history and government of the United States and therefore did not meet the requirements of 8 C.F.R. § 245a.17 which specifies that applicants must possess knowledge and understanding in both of these areas in order to adjust status unless an exception under 8 C.F.R. § 245a.17(c) applies. The director noted that the applicant was given two opportunities to demonstrate this understanding and knowledge and failed to do so on both occasions. It is noted that exceptions as defined under 8 C.F.R. § 245a.17(c) do not apply to this applicant, as he is not over sixty-five (65) years of age and he has not indicated that he is developmentally disabled as defined under 8 C.F.R. § 245a.1(v). Therefore, the director denied the application.

On appeal the applicant states that he would like to take the English and United States history and government examination again as his father was ill, his wife was pregnant and he was working and caring for three children at the time he took these tests.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30 day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30 day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b) (1). If the last day of the period so computed falls on a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, the period shall run until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, nor a legal holiday. 8 C.F.R. § 1.1(h).

The record reflects that the director sent her decision of February 19, 2004 to the applicant and to counsel at their addresses of record. Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) received the appeal four hundred five (405) days later on March 30, 2005. Therefore, the appeal was untimely filed.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
