Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, New York, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to overcome the grounds for denial expressed in the Notice of Intent to Deny. Specifically, the applicant had failed to establish that he entered the United States prior to January 1, 1982 and continuously resided there from that date until May 4, 1988.

On appeal, the applicant stated he would provide a brief within 30 days. More than four months have passed since the appeal was filed, and the applicant has failed to provide a brief or additional documents in support of his appeal. Therefore, the record will be considered complete.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
