DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Miami, Florida, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. This matter will be remanded for further action and consideration.

The district director determined that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status under the LIFE Act due Section 212(a)(2)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (ACT).

On appeal, counsel contends that there was not substantial evidence to support a finding of ineligibility.

The regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(a)(2) state, in pertinent part:

Denials. The alien shall be notified in writing of the decision of denial and of the reason(s) therefore. When an adverse decision is proposed, CIS shall notify the applicant of its intent to deny the application and the basis for the proposed denial. The applicant will be granted a period of 30 days from the date of the notice in which to respond to the notice of intent to deny. All relevant material will be considered in making a final decision.

Accordingly, the case will be remanded for the purpose of the issuance of a notice of intent to deny, if appropriate, as well as a new final decision to the applicant. The new decision, if adverse to the applicant, shall be certified to this office for review.

ORDER: This matter is remanded for further action and consideration pursuant to the above.
