DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Denver, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

The district director denied the application, noting that the applicant had failed to demonstrate that she had continuously resided in the United States in an unlawful status since before January 1, 1982 through May 4, 1988 as required by section 1104(c)(2)(B) of the LIFE Act. Specifically, the director found that unresolved inconsistencies in the evidence submitted cast doubt upon the validity of the applicant's claims.

An affected party filing from within the United States has 30 days from the date of an adverse decision to file an appeal. An appeal received after the 30-day period has tolled will not be accepted. The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the Notice of Decision is mailed. 8 C.F.R. § 245a.20(b)(1).

The record indicates that the director issued the decision on March 13, 2007, and mailed a copy of this notice to the applicant at her address of record. The record shows that the notice was not returned by the United States Postal Service as unclaimed or undeliverable. According to the date stamp on the Form I-290B Notice of Appeal, it was received by Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) on Tuesday, April 18, 2007, or 36 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
