Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for permanent resident status under the Legal Immigration Family Equity (LIFE) Act was denied by the District Director, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The district director denied the application because the applicant had not demonstrated that he resided in the United States in a continuous unlawful status from before January 1, 1982, through May 4, 1988, as required by section 1104(c)(2)(B) of the LIFE Act, and was continuously physically present in the United States from November 6, 1986, through May 4, 1988, as required by section 1104(c)(2)(C) of the LIFE Act.

The applicant timely filed a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion. The applicant did not state the reason for his appeal but indicated that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted within 30 days of filing the appeal. As of the date of this decision, however, more than 7 months after the appeal was filed, no further documentation has been received by the AAO. Therefore, the record will be considered complete as presently constituted.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
