Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the eligibility period. This decision was based on adverse information acquired by the Service relating to the applicant's claim of employment for Andy Rios at Fowler Packing Company.

Whenever an application for special agricultural worker status is denied or the status of a lawful temporary resident is terminated, the alien shall be given written notice setting forth the specific reasons for the denial on Form I-692, Notice of Denial. Form I-692 shall also contain advice to the applicant that he or she may appeal the decision and that such appeal must be taken within 30 days following service of the notification of decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(i). An appeal received after the thirty (30) day period has tolled will not be accepted for processing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv). Form I-694, Notice of Appeal, shall be used to file the appeal and must be accompanied by the appropriate fee. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(ii). Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The director issued the Notice of Denial on June 18, 1991, and sent it to the applicant's most current address of record via certified mail. The notice was returned to the Bureau by the U.S. Postal Service, which stamped the envelope "Returned to Sender; Attempted, Not Known." There is no evidence in the record, however, that the applicant attempted to notify the Bureau of his change of address prior to the issuance of the decision. As such, the applicant's failure to receive the Bureau's notice must be deemed to be of his own making. The appeal was not received by the Bureau until March 19, 1993. The appeal was untimely filed and, therefore, must be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
