Robert P. Wienmann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: This matter is the termination of temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker by the Director, Western Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's temporary resident status because the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the eligibility period. This decision was based on adverse information relating to the applicant's claim of employment for Audon Roy Perez.

On appeal, the applicant requested a copy of her file through the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). The Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), now Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) complied with the request on September 3, 2003. The applicant stated that upon receipt of a copy of her file, she would submit a full statement regarding the reason(s) for her appeal. Over a year and one-half later, the applicant has not submitted a brief, nor has she submitted any additional evidence or addressed the reason(s) for the denial of his application.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
