Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was terminated by the Director, Western Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director terminated the applicant's status because the applicant submitted information which was contradictory to his claimed employment in agriculture while applying for other benefits under the Act.

On appeal, the applicant requested a copy of his file through the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). The Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), now Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) complied with the request on March 26, 1993 and again on July 30, 1998. The applicant stated that upon receipt of a copy of his file, he would submit a response and additional evidence. Over six (6) years later, the applicant has not submitted any additional evidence or addressed the reason(s) for the denial of his application.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
