IN RE:

Applicant:

PETITION: Application for Status as a Temporary Resident pursuant to Section 210 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, 8 U.S.C. § 1160

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. If your appeal was sustained, or if the matter was remanded for further action, you will be contacted. If your appeal was dismissed, you no longer have a case pending before this office, and you are not entitled to file a motion to reopen or reconsider your case.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Northern Regional Processing Facility. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the eligibility period. This determination was based on information provided by Fred and Anna Wickersham, for whom the applicant claimed to have worked.

On appeal, the applicant stated that he never received any correspondence regarding his application from the Service. The Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), now Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) provided the applicant with a copy of the decision rendered in his case on December 29, 1992 and granted the applicant 30 days to respond with a brief or evidence in support of his appeal. The record also reflects that the applicant was provided with a copy of his record including the Notice of Decision on March 1, 2001. Since December 29, 1992, the applicant has not submitted a brief, nor has he submitted any additional evidence or addressed the reason(s) for the denial of his application.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
