Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish the performance of at least 90 man-days of qualifying agricultural employment during the eligibility period. This determination was based on information obtained by Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS), formerly the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), regarding the applicant's claimed employment for Fred and Anna Wickersham.

On appeal, the applicant requested a copy of his legalization file. CIS complied with the request on January 27, 2005. The applicant states that upon receipt of a copy of his file he will submit a full statement regarding the reason(s) for his appeal. Over a year later, he has not furnished a brief, nor has he made any additional statements regarding his reasons for appeal or the reasons for the denial of his application.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d). 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(a). An applicant has the burden of proving the above by a preponderance of the evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(b).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated in the denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

Further, it must be noted that the applicant is ineligible for temporary resident status because of his admitted conviction relating to transportation of illegal drugs. Furthermore, there is no waiver available to an alien inadmissible under section 212(a)(2)(C) of the Act except for a single offense of simple possession of thirty grams or less of marijuana. See section 210(c)(2)(B)(ii) of the Act.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
