Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Western Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The director concluded the documentation submitted did not satisfy the applicant's burden of proof of having performed qualifying agricultural employment. This decision was based on adverse information acquired by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), now Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) relating to the applicant's claim of employment for [REDACTED]

It appears that on appeal, the applicant requested a copy of his legalization file. The Immigration and Naturalization Service complied with the request on June 23, 1993. The record contains no evidence that the applicant made any statements regarding the reasons for his appeal or in support of his claimed employment.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker, an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 man-days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986, and must be otherwise admissible under section 210(c) of the Act and not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(d). 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(a). An applicant has the burden of proving the above by a preponderance of the evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(b).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed. The applicant has failed to address the reasons stated in the denial and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
