FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann
Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. A subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Associate Commissioner, Examinations. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reopen. The motion will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who indicated on her application that she entered the United States in November 1997, without a lawful admission or parole. The director denied the application for Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a, because the applicant failed to establish she was eligible for late registration.

On motion, the applicant merely requests that her application be reconsidered.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(2) requires that a motion to reopen state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding; and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(4) states a motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(3) states, in pertinent part:

A motion for reconsideration must state the reason for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy ... [and] must, when filed, also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision.

The applicant's motion does not consist of any documentary evidence. As such, the issue on which the underlying decision was based has not been overcome on motion.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. That burden has not been met, as the petitioner has not provided any new facts or additional evidence to overcome the previous decision of the Associate Commissioner. Accordingly, the previous decision of the Associate Commissioner will not be disturbed, and the motion will be dismissed.

ORDER: The decision of the Associate Commissioner dated May 21, 2001 is affirmed. The motion is dismissed.
