FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann
Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a.

The director determined that the applicant failed to establish that: (1) he is the spouse of an applicant currently eligible for TPS; (2) he has continuously resided in the United States since December 30, 1998; and (3) he has been continuously physically present in the United States since January 5, 1999 to the date the application was filed. The director, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant states that he submitted enough evidence to establish that he resided in the United States since before January 5, 2001. He submits duplicate copies of his birth certificate and Form I-220A previously furnished and addressed by the director in his decision.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The applicant has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. Further, the applicant neither addressed the director's findings of discrepancies regarding documents he previously furnished nor submitted his marriage certificate as had been requested to establish that he is the spouse of an alien currently eligible for TPS as claimed. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
