FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, reopened, and denied again by said Director. The application is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who indicated on his application that he entered the United States on February 12, 1993, without a lawful admission or parole. The director denied the application for Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a, because the record established that the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant apologizes for his previous wrongdoings. The applicant claims he has not been involved in any other incidents since his last arrest. The applicant requests that his application be reconsidered.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state designated by the Attorney General is eligible for temporary protected status only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national, as defined in section 101(a)(21) of the Act, of a foreign state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. 244.4; and
- (f)
 - (1) Registers for TPS during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the Federal Register, or
 - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation, if at the time of the initial registration period.

Section 244(c) ALIENS ELIGIBLE FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS.-

(2) ELIGIBILITY STANDARDS.-

(B) ALIENS INELIGIBLE. - An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Attorney General finds that-

- (i) the alien has been convicted of any felony or 2 misdemeanors committed in the United States,....

The record reveals that on May 11, 1997, the applicant was arrested by the Police Department in Mineola County, New York for driving while intoxicated, a misdemeanor. On August 27, 1997, the applicant pled guilty to the offense. The applicant was ordered to pay a $450.00 fine and serve one year of conditional discharge. Docket no. [REDACTED]

The record also reveals that on February 17, 1999, the applicant was arrested by the Police Department in Mineola County, New York for possession of a dangerous weapon in the 4th degree and menacing in the 2nd degree. On September 17, 1999, the applicant pled guilty to harassment in the 2nd degree with physical contact, a misdemeanor. The applicant was ordered to pay a $250.00 fine, serve one year conditional discharge, and placed on probation for a year. Docket no. [REDACTED]

In response to a Service request, the applicant provided the court dispositions for both arrests.

The applicant is ineligible for temporary protected status because of his two misdemeanor convictions. 8 C.F.R. 244.4(a).

The burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he or she meets the above requirements. The applicant's statement, on appeal, does not overcome the adverse evidence in the record. Consequently, the director's decision to deny the application for temporary protected status will be affirmed.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
