FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann
Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. A subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Associate Commissioner for Examinations. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reopen. The motion will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a.

The director denied the application after determining that the applicant failed to submit arrest reports and court dispositions of all his arrests as had been requested, including his arrest for delivery of marijuana on May 31, 1995.

Upon review of the record of proceeding, the Associate Commissioner determined that the applicant, on appeal, failed to submit evidence as had been requested to overcome the director's findings. He, therefore, concurred with the director's conclusion and dismissed the appeal on July 5, 2001.

The applicant filed a motion to reopen. Because the Service "cannot match documents/checks/money orders submitted under separate cover to a specific application/petition," on August 15, 2001, the Service returned the documents with fee to the applicant's attorney. Counsel returned the motion to the Service for processing and consideration, and was stamped received with fee on September 21, 2001. Counsel, however, neither addressed nor submitted additional evidence as had been requested by the director.

As provided in 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(2), a motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceedings and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Neither counsel nor the petitioner stated or presented new facts or other documentary evidence in support of the motion to reopen.

Accordingly, the motion will be dismissed.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
