Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a.

The director determined that the applicant failed to submit any evidence to establish that he met the qualification for late registration. The director, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the applicant was eligible for late registration because during the initial registration period he was the child of an alien currently eligible for TPS. She submits a copy of the TPS approval notice of the applicant's mother.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. 244.2, provide that an alien who is a national of a foreign state designated by the Attorney General is eligible for temporary protected status only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national, as defined in section 101(a)(21) of the Act, of a foreign state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. 244.4; and
- (f)
 - (1) Registers for TPS during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the Federal Register, or
 - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
 - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;

(ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;

(iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or

(iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

- (g) Has filed an application for late registration with the appropriate Service director within a 60-day period immediately following the expiration or termination of condition described in paragraph (f) (2) of this section.

The term continuously resided as used in 8 C.F.R. 244.1 means residing in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations and since December 30, 1998. An alien shall not be considered to have failed to maintain continuous residence in the United States by reason of brief, casual, and innocent absence as defined within this section or due merely to a brief temporary trip abroad required by emergency or extenuating circumstances outside the control of the alien.

The term continuously physically present as used in 8 C.F.R. 244.1 means actual physical presence in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations and since January 5, 1999. An alien shall not be considered to have failed to maintain continuous physical presence in the United States by virtue of brief, casual, and innocent absences as defined within this section.

The applicant was requested on September 5, 2001, to submit evidence that he had resided in the United States since December 30, 1998, that he had been continuously physically present in the United States since January 5, 1999, and that he qualifies for late registration as described in paragraph (f) (2) above. The director, in his decision, maintained that in order to qualify for late registration, the applicant must provide evidence that, during the initial registration period, he was in a valid immigration status, had an application pending, or was the spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant. Because the applicant, upon resubmission, failed to submit evidence to establish that he met the qualification for late registration, the director denied the application.

The record reflects that the application for TPS was filed on July 23, 2001. Counsel, on appeal, asserts that the applicant was eligible for late registration because during the initial registration period he was the child of an alien currently eligible for TPS. Counsel submits a copy of Form I-797A dated April 26, 2000, notifying Mary Castro (the applicant's mother) that she has been granted TPS.

Section 101(b)(1) of the Act defines the term "child" to mean an unmarried person under 21 years of age. The record reflects that the petitioner was born on October 25, 1979. The applicant is over the age of 21 years; therefore, he does not meet the definition of "child" as defined in section 101(b)(1) of the Act.

The burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed. This decision constitutes a final notice of ineligibility.
