FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a.

The director determined that the applicant failed to establish that he was eligible for late initial filing (after the initial registration period from January 5, 1999 to August 20, 1999). The director, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, counsel states that her office will be submitting evidence demonstrating that the applicant is eligible for TPS. She asserts that the petitioner not only entered within the required time, but he also applied within the time frame. While counsel indicates that a brief and/or evidence will be furnished within 30 days, it has been approximately five months since the filing of the appeal and no additional statement or evidence has been provided.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. Further, while counsel states that additional evidence will be provided, no additional evidence has been received. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
