Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Mexico who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a.

The director denied the application because the applicant is not a national or citizen of a country/countries designated by the Attorney General.

On appeal, the applicant states that when he filed his TPS application, he stated that he was filing as the spouse of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant. He submits additional evidence, including his marriage certificate and a copy of his wife's employment authorization.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. 244.2, provide that an alien who is a national of a foreign state designated by the Attorney General is eligible for temporary protected status only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national, as defined in section 101(a)(21) of the Act, of a foreign state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. 244.4; and
- (f)
 - (1) Registers for TPS during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the Federal Register, or
 - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
 - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;

(ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;

(iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or

(iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

- (g) Has filed an application for late registration with the appropriate Service director within a 60-day period immediately following the expiration or termination of condition described in paragraph (f) (2) of this section.

The term continuously resided as used in 8 C.F.R. 244.1 means residing in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations and since December 30, 1998.

The term continuously physically present as used in 8 C.F.R. 244.1 means actual physical presence in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations and since January 5, 1999.

The record reflects that the applicant filed his TPS application on May 29, 2002. He claims on appeal that he is the spouse of a native and citizen of Honduras who is currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

Spouses of aliens currently registered for TPS who did not apply during the initial registration period may qualify for late registration if they meet all the general requirements regarding eligibility, including nationality and presence in the United States. In addition, he or she must provide evidence that at the time of the initial registration period, he or she fell within the provisions described in paragraph (f) (2) above.

The applicant in this case is a native and citizen of Mexico. Citizens of Mexico are not currently designated as eligible for TPS under section 244 of the Act. Therefore, the applicant does not meet the eligibility requirement of being a national of a state designated under section 244(b) of the Act. Additionally, the record reflects that the applicant first entered the United States in May 1999. Therefore, he could not have met the requirements that he has continuously resided in the United States since December 30, 1998, and has been continuously physically present since January 5, 1999.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
