FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1254a.

The director determined that the applicant failed to provide all of the requested information. He noted that the applicant failed to submit evidence to show that: (1) he has been continuously physically present in the United States from January 5, 1999 to the date the application was filed; and (2) he was eligible for filing after the initial registration period from January 5, 1999 to August 20, 1999. The director, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant states that he sent proof that he has been physically present in the United States since 1998. While the applicant indicates that a brief and/or evidence will be furnished within 30 days, it has been approximately four months since the filing of the appeal and no additional statement or evidence has been provided.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The applicant has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. Further, while the applicant states that additional evidence will be provided, no additional evidence has been received. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
