DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application after determining that the applicant had failed to establish that she was eligible for late registration.

On appeal, the applicant submitted a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal, wherein the reason(s) for the appeal are stated in full as:

OK APPEAL
I-821 – I-765

The applicant also checked the box indicating that she would be sending a brief and/or additional evidence to the AAO within 30 days. To date, no brief and/or additional evidence has been submitted, and the record must be considered complete.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

It is further noted for the record that the applicant failed to submit any evidence at all, other than her own personal statement dated September 24, 2003, relating to her continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States during the requisite time periods.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
