DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. §1254.

The director determined that the applicant failed to establish she met the qualification for late registration, for filing her application after the registration period from March 9, 2001 to September 9, 2002. The applicant filed her first application on October 21, 2002. The director, therefore, denied the application.

The applicant appears to be represented; however, the individual listed as a representative on appeal is not authorized under 8 C.F.R. 292.1 or 292.2 to represent the applicant. The decision will be furnished only to the applicant.

"Affected Party," means the person or entity with legal standing in a proceeding. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(iii).

An appeal filed by a person or entity not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee, which has been accepted, will not be refunded. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v).

In this case, the individual filing the appeal did not cite any legal authority entitling her or her organization to file an appeal in this matter. Therefore, the appeal will be rejected.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
