Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. A subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The matter is now before the AAO on a motion to reopen. The motion will be dismissed as moot.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who indicated on his application that he entered the United States on February 5, 1990, without a lawful admission or parole. The director denied the application for Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254, because the applicant had failed to establish that he had continuously resided in the United States since February 13, 2001, and had been continuously physically present in the United States since March 9, 2001.

On motion, counsel asserts that due to the applicant's limited English skills, he did not comprehend the type of evidence required to establish his continuous residence and physical presence in the United States.

The record reflects that the applicant obtained legal permanent residence on April 23, 2003. As such, the applicant's motion to reopen is moot.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
